

2013–2014 Custom Verification Group

V4-Independent

Your 2013–2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

B. Receipt of SNAP Benefits

The student certifies that a member of the household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2011 or 2012. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

The student’s household includes:

- The student
- The spouse (if applicable)
- The student’s other children if the student will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2013–2014. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people if they now live with the student and the student will provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2014.

- A member of the household was in receipt of SNAP Benefits in 2011 or 2012.
- A member of the household was NOT in receipt of SNAP Benefits in 2011 or 2012

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2011 or 2012.
