Here's what everyone at Hostos should know about the Accessibility Resource Center (ARC):

The Accessibility Resource Center is a place where students have access to supports and academic accommodations based on their disclosed disability limitations. A wide range of Hostos students fully embrace our assistive technologies, testing accommodations, job development services, workshops, and private computer lab access, which are just some of the supports that we offer. ARC staff collaborates closely with all other departments at Hostos in order to help accomplish our shared goal of long-term academic success and the eventual graduation of Hostos students.

Whether you are a staff member interested in learning more or a student interested in registering with ARC, we hope that you will call or visit the center today.
