PLUS CALL-FOR-ARTISTS

Dancing Futures: Artist & Mentor Collaborative Residency 2021 (8th annual)

Call is available and due: Thurs May 14, 2020
contact: pepatian@gmail.com

Project partners Pepatían and BAAD! provide free rehearsal space, mentorship, and paid performance opportunities at BAAD! Bronx Academy of Arts and Dance for three NYC-based emerging dance artists of color and/or emerging Bronx-based dance artists chosen by a selection committee.

In collaboration with BAAD!, Bronx ArtSpace, Bronx Music Heritage Center, Hostos Center for the Arts & Culture, Pregones/Puerto Rican Traveling Theater, and The Point, Pepatían brings together cultural and community leaders from across the Bronx to hold conversations about issues impacting the future of the borough and how art and culture can be a conduit towards a better tomorrow.

This project is envisioned, curated and produced by Jane Gabriels, Ph.D. and Director, Pepatían in ongoing collaborations with local theaters, community centers, and in community with artists. Special gratitude to Soldanela Rivera, Arnaldo J. Lopez, Arthur Aviles and Charles Rice-Gonzalez.

Thank you!

PROJECT PARTNERS: BAAD! & PREGONES/PRTT

PANELS/COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

The Scope KICK-OFF discussion with Jane Gabriels and Arnaldo J. López with Special Guests !

Tues May 19 , 6:30pm-7:30pm
PregonesPRTT.org

As the world and normal day life transforms during this pandemic crisis, the time calls for artists to speak on resilience, versatility, and how we can move the future of the Bronx with integrated access, equity, and justice. This conversation will look at these issues and the artists who are performing and participating in the Artist Lens | OUR BRONX FUTURE

Bronx: Past and the Present
a discussion with Vivian Vázquez and Soldanela Rivera

Wed May 20, 2020, 6:30pm
