A young black con man, Paul, insinuates himself into the lives of a wealthy New York couple, claiming he knows their son at college. Charmed by his conversation and the belief that he is the son of Sidney Poitier, the couple invites him to stay overnight. In the morning they discover him in bed with a male hustler. Paul's lies, which lead to shuddering revelations, upend everyone's life.

Winner of the TONY Award, New York Drama Critics Circle Award, and the Obie Award for Best Play.
