HOMENAJE A RUTH FERNÁNDEZ
CHOCO ORTA
Sat, Nov 14, 17:30pm | Main Theater
Reserve Seating: Orch: $25  | Mezz: $20  | Students and Under 18: $10

The acclaimed songstress Choco Orta returns to New York for Puerto Rican Heritage Month to perform her dramatic for many years — a tribute to the great contralto and stateswoman Ruth Fernández. Heralded as “The Soul of Puerto Rico made into Song,” Fernández broke many gender and racial barriers—performing at Carnegie Hall, recording with Machito, touring Scandinavia, and many other firsts for an Afro-Latina woman. Orta, who will be joined by her quintet, has put together a very special program of Fernández favorite songs composed by such beloved Boricuina icons as Rafael Hernández, Bobby Capó and Lito Pena.

Orta is “The real thing, a strong improviser with a big, big old-fashioned voice.” – The New York Times
