

New Director of Governmental and External Affairs in the President's Office

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Eric Radezky as our Director of Governmental and External Affairs. Dr. Radezky comes to Hostos Community College after working for New York State Assembly Member Joseph Lentol since 2006. For the past seven years he served as Lentol's District Office Director, overseeing all aspects of the office including staff development, project oversight and office management. His core skills include community outreach and organizing, legislative coordination across all three levels of government, long-term project development and oversight, and constituent advocacy. Radezky also holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from Rutgers University and has taught classes on the Practical Politics of New York City and US Power and Politics at LaGuardia Community College as an adjunct professor since 2018. Dr. Radezky will serve as a member of the Extended Cabinet.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Radezky to Hostos Community College.

Mil gracias y bendiciones,

Daisy Cocco De Filippis, Ph.D.
Interim President
