Spring 2026
Season

“Journeys of Resilience”

DEAR FRIENDS,

¡Bienvenidos! Welcome to Spring 2026 at the Hostos Center for the Arts & Culture.

Every year, monarch butterflies migrate across borders without passports, traveling thousands of miles between ancestral homes. Guided by instinct, their journey, fragile yet resilient, mirrors the stories we share this season.

Through theater, music, dance, and festivals, our stages and gallery come alive with narratives that cross oceans and neighborhoods, spanning generations and ideas. Together, they form Journeys of Resilience, not just a theme, but a lived, tangible, and deeply human experience.

Hostos is your Center for the Arts & Culture! We invite you to come as you are, bring your curiosity, your family, and your friends. Sit with us, celebrate with us, and reflect on how your own journey of resilience, like the monarch butterflies, connects us, carries us forward, and keeps us all strong.
