Inaugurated in 2008, at the O. Henry Learning Center in Manhattan before moving to Hostos Community College in 2009, Momma’s Hip Hop Kitchen (MHHK) is a multifaceted hip-hop event designed to showcase women artists, especially women of color. MHHK serves as a social justice community-organizing platform that educates and empowers women of color on issues that impact their lives, including HIV/AIDS and reproductive justice.

In describing the theme “Still We Rise,” MHHK co-founder Kathleen Adams said “we are entering into a climate of uncertainty and change, but despite all of the lows, we still go high.” “We rise to celebrate our ancestors who have collectively struggled to lay the path for us to journey upon. We rise to break the chains of oppression. We rise so our sisters’ voices can be heard.”

Admission to the concert is free, but tickets are required. Tickets must be picked up in person at the Hostos Center for the Arts Box Office, 450 Grand Concourse in the Bronx. Hours are Monday through Friday, 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM, and two hours prior to performance.
