Congratulations to all 2007 Hostos Authors!

Anthologies, books, reviews, scholarly journal and magazine articles, online journals, novels, short stories, published conference presentations and other creative works are some of the ways that faculty meet their professional responsibility to contribute value to the empirical knowledge base of our respective disciplines. We, as faculty, keep our schedules very busy with teaching, service, and the pursuit of scholarship. We must remember that it is equally important for us to loudly celebrate our successes and share with one another the kernels of our scholarship and teaching experiences. This small publication reflects only a portion of what we do, but it is with great pleasure that I offer Recognizing Faculty’s Research and Scholarship as an opportunity for the Hostos faculty to be recognized. I am eager to share your achievements of calendar year 2007 and look forward to learning about new publications and grants received in 2008. I wish you the best in all of your academic endeavors and extend my warmest wishes for another fruitful year.

Daisy Cocco De Filippis, Ph.D.
Provost and Senior Vice President
Division of Academic Affairs
